

RAMESH RAJALINGAM

Resumé

Admissions, Accreditations

- 2001 – 2007 Bachelor of Laws & Bachelor of Arts (Philosophy) University of New South Wales
- 2008 Admitted to practice as a solicitor, Supreme Court of NSW
- 2013 Admitted to practice as a barrister, Supreme Court of NSW and High Court of Australia

Work History

Oct 2013 to present Barrister

- 2016 – 2017 Counsel assisting the Independent Commission against Corruption (ICAC) in Op Tarlo
- 2009 – 2013 Solicitor - criminal law William O'Brien & Ross Hudson Solicitors
- 2008 – 2009 Solicitor - criminal law Aboriginal Legal Service
- 2007 – 2008 Tipstaff and research assistant to the Hon Justice Fullerton Supreme Court of NSW
- 2005 – 2007 Volunteer work experience at the Public Defenders and Aboriginal Legal Service

Awards

Ramesh participated in the International Manfred Lachs Space Law moot competition after finishing his coursework at University. His team made it to the Quarter Final and Ramesh was awarded Best Oralist in the Asia-Pacific region. He later worked as a research assistant to a Justice of the Supreme Court NSW and solicitor for the Aboriginal Legal Service in Broken Hill. He returned to Sydney to work in private practice for about four years. He was called to the NSW Bar in 2013 and awarded the Chris Gee QC Memorial Prize for excellence in the Barrister Practice Course.

Advocacy

Ramesh has appeared in a wide range of trials and sentence matters across New South Wales and the Australian Capital Territory including drug offences, serious personal violence offences, murder, sex related offences, firearms offences and other matters. He was recently retained as counsel assisting the ICAC in an inquiry relating to corruption in the non-government sector.